EXCURSIONS THAT MAKE THE TRIP DO MORE THAN JUST TRAVEL

The difference between a “trip” and a “vacation” is what you do once you’re there. Make sure yours is the latter by pre-booking your Amstar DMC transfers and excursions ahead of time with your travel agent. Say “yes” to arranging your details now, and NO to:

- Last-minute running around closing loose ends, like how you’re going to get to your resort or hotel from the airport
- Worrying about availability on excursions and missing out—your spot is already saved with your literal name on it
- Searching for a tour operator on the ground, hoping you’ll get a fair price for your last-minute booking
- Having to think about safety or reliability—our recommended vendors are vetted with reputations that have stood the test of time.
- Guessing what time you need to depart the property for your return flight home—we’ll arrange it for you.

Amstar excursions and transfers are available in Mexico, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Costa Rica, and Hawaii, with more than 476 hotel-based customer service representatives and even more at our home bases ready to help your agent enhance your escape. Supported by the hundreds of guides, drivers, and operators on site, it’s no wonder that more than 1.8 million passengers have chosen to explore with our destination management partner.

PLAN FOR THE BEST

Vacation ever, we mean! Here’s what happens when you add an excursion to your getaway:

- Experience the highlights and must-sees of your destination in efficient formats that make the most of your time
- Visit renowned sites in total safety under the supervision of a trained, locally connected guide
- Move from place to place in comfort, style, and convenience
- Get acquainted quickly with the things that make a place special while still having time to savor the moments
- Go through a cultural and educational orientation to better appreciate where you are
- Learn about local traditions and see life through a new lens
